

11
102
1004

Leibniz
Universität
Hannover

Hochschulbüro für Internationales
International Office

ONE OF EUROPE'S
GREENEST CITIES

CLOSE TO HAMBURG,
BERLIN, AMSTERDAM

WIDE RANGE OF LEISURE
OPPORTUNITIES

LEIBNIZ UNIVERSITY HANNOVER

Founded in 1831, Gottfried Wilhelm Leibniz Universität Hannover (Leibniz University Hannover) is a leading public research university in Lower Saxony's capital. Home to 28,000 students, it comprises 9 faculties and 3 schools. As a member of the prestigious TU9 Group and the European university alliance EULIST, it excels in research, innovation, and international collaboration, offering diverse programs and cutting-edge facilities.

HANNOVER

Hannover, a city of over 500,000 people and home to 5 institutions of higher education, is one of the greenest and most accessible cities in Europe, thanks to excellent public transportation and numerous student discounts. Sports fans can enjoy a Hannover96 soccer games, while culture enthusiasts can attend markets, concerts and festivals throughout the year, including Oktoberfest, Fête de la Musique, and the famous Christmas market.

FACULTIES

- Architecture & Landscape Sciences
- Civil Engineering & Geodetics
- Electrical Engineering & Computer Science
- Humanities
- Law
- Management & Economics
- Mechanical Engineering
- Physics & Mathematics

SCHOOLS

- Leibniz School of Education
- Leibniz School of Optics & Photonics
- QUEST Leibniz Research School

SUBJECT AREAS WITH COURSES TAUGHT IN ENGLISH

- Architecture
- Atlantic Studies
- Biology
- Biomedical Engineering
- Business and Economics
- Chemistry
- Civil Engineering
- Computer Science
- Economics
- Electrical Engineering
- English
- Geodetics
- Law
- Mechanical Engineering
- Optics
- Philosophy

EXCHANGE PROGRAM NOMINATION AND APPLICATION INFORMATION

University Nomination: Nominate via email to Anne Höch (incomings@zuv.uni-hannover.de). Nomination deadlines are 30 Apr for winter semester, Oct 31 for summer semester.

Student Application: Nominated students will receive an email from Anne Höch to apply via the application portal "MoveOn". You need:

- Learning Agreement (signed by your home university's study abroad coordinator)
- Transcript of records from home institution
- Copy of passport (if available)
- German B1 proof required only for courses taken in German.

Students email the generated pdf of the application, signed on the last page by the home university's study abroad coordinator to incomings@zuv.uni-hannover.de

Application deadlines: 31 May for winter semester, 30 Nov for summer semester.

Housing, meals and insurance: Students apply for housing through the international office on a first-come, first-served basis. Housing is limited. All rooms are single rooms with a shared kitchen (about 350€/month). Affordable meals are available at the cafeterias (3 - 6€ for lunch). Students must have health insurance that meets German federal requirements, e.g. German public insurance (about 128€/month). The International Office of LUH will be happy to answer any questions you may have.

Pre-Semester Intensive German Course: This optional 4-week is offered during the month before the semester starts. Course cost is approx. 350€.

WINTER SEMESTER

1 Oct 2024 – 31 Mar 2025
(Lecture period: 14 Oct – 1 Feb)

SUMMER SEMESTER

1 Apr – 30 Sep 2025
(Lecture period: 7 Apr – 19 Jul)

Orientation takes place
1-2 weeks before classes begin.

Most exams take place in the 2 weeks following the end of the lecture period.

REGIONAL COORDINATOR FOR LATIN AMERICA

César Limaylla Bustamante
Tel. +49 511 762 2549
cesar.limaylla-bustamante@zuv.uni-hannover.de

LEIBNIZ UNIVERSITY
HANNOVER,
INTERNATIONAL
OFFICE,
WELFENGARTEN 1A,
30167 HANNOVER,
GERMANY

INCOMING EXCHANGE STUDENT ADVISOR

Anne Höch
Tel. +49 0511 762 5480
anne.hoech@zuv.uni-hannover.de

@INTERNATIONALOFFICELUH

SUMMER ENGINEERING RESEARCH PROGRAM

Global internship sound interesting? Join our summer research program and be part of a professional research team at Leibniz University Hannover

Dates: May 19 – August 5, 2025
Cost: 3100€ per student (housing included)
Credits: 10 ECTS (equiv. 5 US credits)

